NOTE

Dated.....3rd November.....195 4.

I inspected theHarijan Colony at Jeevanahalli, Cox Town, Civil Station, Bangalore, on 3rd November 1954 with the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, the Commissioner and the Mayor, Bangalore City Corporation and the Municipal Engineer, Sri.V.M.Mascarenhas,M.L.A., was also present. The piece of land on which the Harijan huts exist has been acquired and possession has been handed over to the Trust Board. The Trust Board has pleaded inability to take up the lay-out scheme and has referred the matter to the Corporation, as the area is within the Corporation limits. The Chairman, Trust Board, may be asked to hand over the land to the Corporation Commissioner at once. I have requested the Corporation Commissioner, the Mayor and the Corporation Engineer, to see that the land is demarcated into house building sites within a fortnight and distributed to the needy Harijans. The Harijans of the locality are prepared to contribute free labour for demarcating the area into sites.

It is ascertained that the plot of land now acquired is insufficient. S.Nos.118 and 119 which lie adjacent to the plot now acquired may also be acquired. The Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District promised to institute acquisition proceedings in consultation with the Corporation. This should be expedited.
